Jeff Blackadar, President

The Ottawa Horticultural Society is a group of amateur gardeners who have been sharing their enthusiasm and knowledge of gardening in Ottawa since 1854.

Program: We have an active program of speakers, shows, sales, and community projects. See our website for details, or send us a letter.

Benefits of Membership:

- guest speakers at monthly meetings
- newsletter and yearbook; both award winning and informative
- volunteer opportunities and community planting activities
- 10% discounts at certain local nurseries
- eligibility for photo competitions
- eligibility for plant/display competitions (Indoor Garden Show, Spring Bulb Show, Garden Flower and Rose Show, and September Show)
- several local garden tours and outings in the summer
- learning and sharing gardening knowledge.

Join: Mail in the attached form or send a letter to the address above, or see our website for details. Cost: $15/person, $20/families. Members can participate in shows, auctions, and public plantings.

2007 OHS Program
